

Who's up to for a friendly game of pool?

When taking girls on a date, you have to think of activities that they might like. The outcome of the date will depend on who you ask out and what activities you do while on the date, so be creative!